Workshop Overview

The Office of Judicial Administration, the Supreme Court Task Force on Permanency Planning, and the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services are pleased to coordinate six regional training opportunities on "Improving Outcomes for Older Youth: What Judges and Attorneys Need to Know" for judges, prosecutors, guardians ad litem, attorneys for parents, SRS attorneys, social workers and others. The Administration for Children and Families, the American Bar Association, and the National Child Welfare Resource Center for Youth Development are assisting in this endeavor by providing trainers and technical assistance.

Judges, prosecutors, guardians ad litem, attorneys for parents, SRS attorneys, and social workers from the same judicial district are encouraged to attend the training together.

Sessions

Each session will begin promptly at 9 a.m. and will continue until 5 p.m. Lunch will be on your own. Each participant will receive a binder of materials.

CLE Credits/CEU

Participation in the training will provide 5.5 (5.5) hours of Continuing Legal Education Credits. Continuing Education Units will also be provided for social workers

Site Information

If additional information is needed on the location of the training, please refer to the hotels' websites. Directions and hotel contact information will be available on the websites.

Registration

There is no fee for this training; however, registration is required due to the limited amount of space and materials. Due to the limit on participation, walk-ins cannot be accommodated.

Online registration at www.kscourts.org/rt2006 is encouraged. If online registration is not available, please complete the registration portion of the brochure and return it to the Office of Judicial Administration by May 19, 2006.

If you are registered and are unable to attend, please notify us immediately. This will allow individuals on the waiting list to attend.

Americans with Disabilities Act

If you are an individual with a disability and will need a reasonable accommodation during the conference, such as large print on handouts, please contact Elizabeth Reimer as soon as possible but no later than 10 working days prior to the conference date at (785) 296-5938, or by TTY/TDD through the Kansas Relay Center at (785) 766-3777, or at reimere@kscourts.org. OJA will make every effort to accommodate such requests.
